RHOADES MCKEE ANNOUNCES A CORPORATE CHALLENGE TO BENEFIT D.A. BLODGETT –ST. JOHN’S HOME AT THE ANNUAL RHOADES MCKEE REEDS LAKE TRIATHLON

(Grand Rapids, Michigan- June 21, 2010) – A title Sponsor since 2007, Rhoades McKee hosts a new Corporate Challenge at the Annual Rhoades McKee Reeds Lake Triathlon in an effort to raise awareness and benefit D.A. Blodgett – St. John’s Home.

Organizations may register a team of 3-10 triathletes to compete as a team. Points for each team will be awarded in direct correlation to the triathlete’s place in his/her division. The top 3 triathlete’s standings on each team will be scored. For every $100.00 raised for D.A. Blodgett – St. John’s Home, the team will be able to subtract 5 points from their total score. The winning organization will be awarded a cocktail reception hosted by Rhoades McKee.

The recognized beneficiary of the annual triathlon, Rhoades McKee has also supported this organization in the past with additional efforts such as painting rooms, installing new carpet, school supplies donations and holiday gift giving drives.

“The spirit of healthy competition brings people together. We are excited to add this component of competition to the triathlon in an effort to increase awareness for D.A. Blodgett – St. John’s Home,” said Peter Lozicki, Executive Committee Member at Rhoades McKee. “We hope that organizations will join us in an overall effort to impact the lives of the children benefiting from these organizations,” continued Lozicki.
